

NCJFCJ 67th ANNUAL CONFERENCE
JULY 18 - 21, 2004
Portland, Oregon

No. 10

Resolved that the National Council, through its Board of Trustees, publicly supports, prior to argument in the U.S. Supreme Court in the case of Roper v. Simmons, the decision of the Missouri Supreme Court that applying the death penalty for acts committed when a juvenile, violates the 8th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

Adopted this 21st day of July, 2004
By the Membership Assembled in Conference
In Portland, Oregon
